Principal's foreword

Our Lady of the Rosary (OLR) is a co-educational Catholic Parish School situated on the Sunshine Coast, in the picturesque beachside city of Caloundra. OLR is a small school of 313 students in Prep to Year Six (14 classes) and this enables us to be a tightly-knit community where we know every student and their family. OLR shares with students and parents a welcoming family atmosphere, great community spirit and an active parent body. Our school has a caring, progressive staff and offers a dynamic, evolving curriculum, based on academic excellence, gospel values and spiritual awareness.

OLR was opened in 1980 by the Sisters of St Joseph and was solidly built on the Catholic Christian tradition and the Charism of Mary MacKillop. The quote from Mary MacKillop which states, "Never see a need without doing something about it." is a firmly established 'catch-cry' at our school which often drives our purpose as a Catholic learning community.

These traditions are highly valued and have continued to thrive through the joint efforts of staff, parents, students, parish and the wider community. Through these traditions, OLR school community strives to shape the uniqueness of our individual 'spirits' to create a communal spirituality which is characterised by our motto: 'to pray, to care, to share'. Characteristics of the student body

2017 saw the student body of OLR as a predominantly homogenous group, largely consisting of students born in Australia. Although some were born overseas, the majority of students have English speaking parents. All of our students have much in common. This includes: the need to be cared about and loved; the need to be challenged within their proximal zone of development; the need to be successful in meeting those challenges; and, the need to make responsible choices. We are privileged to support the learning and development of every one of our students. In 2017, we were especially privileged to support: 2% indigenous students; 5% students with verified disabilities; and 4% students for whom English is a second language.

While those elements are common to all of our students, there remains much diversity. In 2017, 61% of our students were from the Catholic, Christian tradition, 16% were of other Christian Traditions while 23% of OLR's students have no religious affiliation.

Social climate

Our student community is drawn from families who are representative of the broader Caloundra community. This is evidenced by The Index of Community Socio-Educational Advantage (ICSEA). This index is compiled from: the occupation and education level of parents/carers; the socio-economic characteristics of the areas where students live; whether a school is in a metropolitan, regional or remote area; the proportion of students from a language background other than English; and, the proportion of Indigenous students enrolled at the school. In 2017, OLR's ICSEA spread from the bottom 7% to the top 36% was as follows: 7%; 21%; 35%; 36%

From data gained through community surveys and the internal school review process, there was a good level of satisfaction expressed by all stakeholders. Areas of commendation from the parent community included: OLR having a welcoming, inclusive and supportive school culture with a strong community spirit. Our current Strategic Renewal Plan is informed by feedback provided in areas to be strengthened. A copy is available on our website: www.olr.qld.edu.au

Parent engagement

Parents are welcome partners in the education of our students at OLR and their involvement in the children's education and in the general life of OLR are both highly valued and a vitally important part of building an effective home and school partnership. Parents and teachers are encouraged to maintain honest and open communication. We have an active and involved P&F Association, who work to support and build the OLR community. The following strategies and activities provide opportunities for parents to be involved in their child's education: parent teacher meetings and evenings, participation in classroom activities, library support, attendance at celebrations of learning and open classrooms, participation in prayer gatherings and liturgies, P&F Meetings, social functions, involvement in excursions, sports days/carnivals, and P&F fund raising events.

If a notification is not received, class teachers follow up with parents to ensure the safety of the child. The school requests, where possible, that parents advise the school in advance of any absences. Absences are followed up for children who arrive back after an absence without a written explanation or verbal advice from the parents.
